HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY

MOORE'S LANDING

HABS No. MO-1457

Location: New Franklin vicinity, Howard County, Missouri

HISTORICAL AND ARCHITECTURAL INFORMATION

The following information was recorded by Alexander Piaget and Charles van Ravenswaay at the time the photograph was taken:

Built ca. 1871 as the summer home of a prominent St. Louis family who owned large tracts of land in the vicinity. At the time the house was built, it was only a few hundred yards from the bank of the river, in a magnificent grove of trees. A row of cedars lined the road leading from the front veranda to the Landing. The interior of the house is a curious combination of the classic and the late Victorian Rococo. Destroyed 1936.

PROJECT INFORMATION

The Piaget-van Ravenswaay Survey consists of a number of photographs, primarily of sites and structures in Missouri, which were taken before 1938 by Alexander Piaget and after that by Paul Piaget, both in conjunction with Charles van Ravenswaay. Photographs of buildings were incorporated into the HABS collection in 1985 by Laura Rupp and in 1986 by Deborah Fulton, HABS historians. A master list is available in the ~~MO-1800~~ records for MO-1800.
